

This article was originally printed in the November 2011 issue of New Earth, the newspaper for the Diocese of Fargo.

Annual basketball tradition continues

Father Kurt Gunwall

What is the cause of tension between the seminarians and priests in the Diocese of Fargo? The Collar Classic.

Last year, the Collar Classic, our annual priests versus seminarians basketball game, occurred during Christmas break so that all of our seminarians could join the competition. This year, we have selected Thursday, Dec. 22, as the night for this highly competitive game. We will once again hold the Collar Classic at Shanley High School, 5600 S. 25th St., Fargo.

Last year, the priests took the trophy back after three years, so the seminarians are chomping for a chance to get it back. Join hundreds of others to cheer on your favorite team, enjoy a little half-time entertainment, and meet some of the stars of the court. Call (701) 356-7956 for more information.

Father Kurt Gunwall is vocation director for the Diocese of Fargo.