

Ignatian Retreat for Men

March 18-21, 2010
Cardinal Muench Seminary
Fargo, ND

An Ignatian Retreat uses Sacred Scripture and silence as a means to allow us to listen to Christ, and for Christ to speak to us. The silence of the retreat is not one of not speaking, but rather turning out the noise of the world around us and being alone with Christ. All retreatants will be required to practice Silence during the retreat. Spiritual Direction and the Sacrament of Reconciliation will be available. Private rooms are provided. Retreatants will share bathrooms and showers. Cost of the retreat is $225. Registration deadline: March 1, 2010.

Retreat Master: Fr. Greg Cleveland, O.M.V.

Fr. Cleveland serves as a Spiritual Director for the Lanteri Center for Ignatian Spirituality in Denver, Colorado. He was ordained in 1995 with an M.A. in Spiritual Theology. His thesis was "The Experience of Wholeness and Integration in the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius". He obtained certification in Spiritual Direction from the Center for Spiritual Development in New York City. Fr. Greg enjoys helping people to God through retreats, parish missions and individual spiritual guidance.
